

MASTER INDEX

Explanation of the Table Columns

- "Start Page" refers to the first page of the email thread contained in the composite document of emails, which consists of an expansive set of email threads
- "Date" is the date of the email at the beginning of the relevant thread
- "Categories" are analytical categories identifying linguistic patterns of custodial interactions in an email

Navigation Instructions for Links

- Click on the ink-blue arrows on the top right to scroll between pages within a singular email thread
- Click on the red arrows on the top right to navigate from one email thread to the next/previous thread (as an alternative to accessing the emails from the Master Index)
- Page numbers within the top-left section refer to the corresponding page in the composite document
